Poems You Ought to Know

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof. Charles Ellot Norton.

The Ship

By WILLIAM WORDSWORTH

Where lies the land to which you ship must go? Festively she puts forth in trim array: As vigorous as a lark at break of day; Is she for tropic auns, or polar snow? What boots the inquiry? Neither friend nor foe She cares for, let her travel where she may. She finds familiar names, a beaten way Ever before her, and a wind to blow. Yet still I ask, what haven is her mark? And almost as it was when ships were rare, i From time to time, like pilarims, here and there Crossing the waters) doubt, and something dark. Of the old sea some reverential fear, is with me at thy farevely, joyous bark!

Newspaper Tributes

On the demise of the late Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4,6%5 newspaper stories of the life and career of the deceased.

These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee.

Mr. Burrelle, who makes a specialty of this unique method of preserving family history. also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family helrloom that will be handed down to future generations
This work is one of the several developments of the press clipping industry and Mr. Bur-relle has made a special study of the work he created several years ago.
